Trainer: Isabella Wallace

Audience: Teaching Staff

A great teacher is continually assessing the impact that their own teaching is having.

What makes one of the most significant differences to pupil achievement? According to the latest research, it's the feedback that we get from the pupils (not the other way round!) about what they have learnt and understood

Discover:

- Practical, enjoyable techniques that you can use to check progress throughout the lesson
- Ways to promote resilience and independence in your learners
- Inspired questioning techniques
- The best ways to spot gaps in pupils' understanding and challenge every learner
- How to intervene to ensure great progress is maintained.
