

Special Educational Needs: Planning for Parental Engagement

Wednesday 21st November 2018

09:30 — 15:30

Hopwood Hall College, Rochdale Campus

Trainer: Jackie Lloyd (SENse)

Audience: All

The New Code of Practice for Special Educational Needs has placed greater emphasis on the role of parents in the SEN process.

This one day course examines the new demands and expectations placed on schools to work ever more closely, efficiently and smartly with parents through greater involvement, engagement and structured conversations, and will explore practical and realistic ways in which this can be achieved in your school.

Please note that lunch will not be provided, therefore delegates are advised to bring their own
