

Introduction to Comparative Judgement

Monday 25th March 2019

Primary Staff: 10:30—12:30

Secondary Staff: 1.00—15:00

Hopwood Hall College, Rochdale Campus

Trainer: Daisy Christodoulou (External Consultant)

The session will cover the following topics:

- How comparative judgement works, and how it is different from traditional marking
- A summary of the results from recent large-scale national pilots
- A chance for every teacher to judge either Y4 or Y10 writing (depending on phase)
- Live presentation and discussion of the results from the judging
- How comparative judgement can be used as a replacement for traditional writing assessment

Daisy Christodoulou is the Director of Education at No More Marking, a provider of online comparative judgement. She works closely with schools on developing new approaches to assessment. Before that, she was Head of Assessment at Ark Schools, a network of 35 academy schools. She has taught English in two London comprehensives and has been part of government commissions on the future of teacher training and assessment. Daisy is the author of two books, Seven Myths about Education and Making Good Progress? The future of Assessment for Learning.
