

Making Outdoor Learning Fun - River Studies

Tuesday 24th April 2018

13:30—16:00

Hollingworth Lake Visitor Centre

Trainer: NatureEd

Audience: All Staff

Practical tips at planning and running river investigations

Looking at the local importance of rivers, this session will give practical tips at planning and running river investigations to collect field data including measuring flow rates, kick sampling and also looking at issues such as flooding, pollution, etc.

Curriculum links: Geography (river systems & fieldwork skills); Science (freshwater habitats & animal adaptations).

