

Is my school VI friendly?

People and organisation

Question	Can I answer this? Where can I find this information?
What class or group will my child be in?
What is the ratio of staff to children in this class or group?
What access will my child have to a qualified teacher of children with VI?
Are there any support staff that are specifically designated for pupils with sight problems?
Do support staff have opportunities to plan with the teacher(s)?
How are decisions made about the type and amount of support that my child will need?
Would support also foster my child's independence?
Does a habilitation specialist visit the school on a regular basis?
Is there a school nurse on site?
What are the arrangements for physiotherapy, speech and language therapy and occupational therapy if my child needs these?
Will my child have a key worker in the school?
Is a system of daily home-school communication in place and will this be in a form that I can access?
Will I be involved in decisions about my child? How?
Is there a buddy system in place in the school?
Are there, or have there been, any other pupils in the school who have a vision impairment?
Are there links with any other schools that have pupils who have vision impairment?	